

Press release

News and special features of the Jahresgaben 2016

The Kunstverein München presents a diverse selection of more than 70 contemporary artists who live and work in Munich and the surrounding area. A large part of the works are produced especially for the annual exhibition. The spectrum ranges from painting and drawing to sculptural and multimedia work. They are one-of-a-kind or small-scale works, which can be purchased at very reasonable prices.

This year, a special focus will once again be on the presentation of a wide range of artistic positions. More than 70 artists have been invited - including newcomers like Yutie Lee, Valio Tchenkov, Helin Alas and Michele Melillo. But also long-standing and renowned participants like Michaela Melián, Andreas Neumeister, Anna McCarthy or Martin Wöhrle are represented.

The Jahresgaben exhibition continues Kunstverein München's connection to the local contemporary art scene and sales support both the Kunstverein and artists. 50% of each sale supports the artist, 45% supports the Kunstverein, and the remaining 5% goes towards social insurance for artists.

As a special contribution, Kunstverein München presents a series of screenings, lectures and performances in the k.m Kino this year.

In addition, a part of the exhibition will be devoted to the private art collection of the art historian and board member of the Kunstverein Martina Fuchs (1962-2016). All proceeds from the sale of her collection will support the Martina Fuchs Archive at Kunstverein München, and our renewed efforts to revise the Kunstverein's history and make it publicly available online.

Being a member of Kunstverein München is a requirement to purchase a work, though it is easy to become a member when making a purchase.
